

VIRGINIA GAZETTE.

Containing the freshest Advices, Foreign and Domestick.

From Friday, April 28, to Friday, May 5, 1738.

LETTERS from Venice say, That the latest Advices from Constantinople brought an Account of the great Preparations making there for carrying on the War, which Preparations were pushing on with more Vigour than ever, conformable to a new Resolution taken by the Divan, notwithstanding the ill Success of the Siege of Oczakow, never to listen to any Terms of Accomodation, but such as were suitable to the Dignity of the Sublime Ottoman Empire.

We have often heard of Gascoons of several Countries; but the Turks have now pitch'd the Bar beyond them all, in the following Letter from the Bashaw (or rather Don Quixot) of Zwornick, to General Marulli, Commandant of Belgrade.

' This is to give you to understand, that I design to be very soon before Belgrade, with an Army of 30,000 of our victorious Troops, in order to repossess ourselves of that Fortrefs, which was formerly taken by Violence from the true Musulmans. I send you this Notice, that you may prepare yourself to deliver up the Place as soon as I summon you, and to give you Time for drawing up the Articles of Capitulation, that I may have no more to do, when I come, than to sign them. I hope you will listen so to the Voice of Prudence, as not to make any Difficulty to regulate Matters in the amicable Manner which I propose to you in this Letter. I promise you, on my Side, to act reasonably with the Place, and to leave your Inhabitants in the Enjoyment of their Rights, Privileges and Prerogatives, in the same Manner as if they had the Happiness to be born Subjects of the High and Sublime Porte, of which God will every Day increase the Prosperity and Glory.

To this Fanfarronade, General Marulli sent Answer, That he hop'd, on his Side, the Bashaw would keep his Word to come and visit Belgrade; and that nothing should be wanting to give him a proper Reception.

They write from Madrid, That the 29th of last Month, N. S. their Catholick Majesties assisted at a kind of Opera, which was represented in the Palace by the Princes and Princesses of the Royal Family, and executed with all the Grace imaginable: Farinelli sung several Cantata's in that Piece: They add, that the Court is very brilliant, since the King of Spain has given Leave to wear rich Cloaths.

In one of our former Papers, we gave an Account of a Treaty of Marriage that was on Foot, between the King of the Two Sicilies and the Princess of Saxony; we have now the following Paragraph, which shews that Marriage is consummated, viz.

' The Court of Vienna spares no Pains to make it believ'd she had no Hand in the Marriage of the King of the Two Sicilies and the Princess of Saxony; but there is little Likelihood the Court of France will be prevail'd on so to believe. It would fill a Volume were we to relate the many and various Conjectures this Marriage furnishes the Politicians with; that is to say, with the Conditions, Consequences, and Influence this Marriage will have over the Peace or Troubles of Europe.

Extract of a Letter from Corte, Capital of the Island of Corsica, dated Dec. 29.

' The Marquisses Giafferi and Giazinto de Proli, Prime Ministers and Generals of King Theodore, our

' Sovereign, having receiv'd a Letter from him to acquaint them with the Embarkation preparing in France, in Favour of the Genoesse, and the Reports spread about by the Genoesse, that several of the Chiefs and Inhabitants of Corsica, were ready to submit as soon as the French should land in the Island; they thought necessary, conformable to Letters from King Theodore, to call a general Assembly of the Inhabitants of the Kingdom to meet in this City. The Assembly has accordingly met, and have unanimously resolved to support their Election in Favour of King Theodore and his Descendants, never to acknowledge any other Sovereign, and to be faithful to him unto the last Drop of their Blood. All the Chiefs and Inhabitants have since taken a new Oath of Fidelity to King Theodore, and drawn up a Diploma of it, which they sign'd the 27th Instant: It was then enregister'd in the Court of Chancery, and sent away to King Theodore. The principal signing Persons were the Marques Giafferi, the Marques Luke Ornano, the Marques de Pauly, the Chevalier Theodore Murati, the Marques de Matia, the Vice-Chancellor, and several others.

If this Letter is genuine, we are oblig'd by all the Rules of Interest, Honour, and a just Vengeance, which is always true Policy in a State with regard to her Neighbours, to send away some immediate Assistance to the brave and generous Corsicans. The Interest of our Turkey Company, and Italian Merchants, consequently the Interest of Great-Britain, calls aloud upon us to prevent Corsica from falling into the Hands of the French; our Honour cannot suffer us to sit down supinely, and like stupid, infatuated Men, behold the French seizing a Kingdom of such vast Importance, by its Situation, to the Woollen Manufactures of England; and lastly, by assisting the Corsicans, which a few of our Men of War can easily do, we shall take a laudable Vengeance on the Genoesse, for the atrocious Affront they put upon our Sovereign, when the young Chevalier de St. George visited their City. These are Points which we hope will be thought of and executed, before France puts her meditated Yoke about our Necks.

L O N D O N, Jan. 19.

Last Saturday Morning, about One o'Clock, a Fire broke out, in the Kitchen of the Dwelling-house of John Basket, Esq; his Majesty's Printer, in Black Friars, which soon burnt down the Dwelling-house, and destroy'd one of the finest Printing-houses in the World, with 14 Printing-Presses, Printing-Types of all sorts, and other Materials thereto belonging; also many Thousands of Bibles, Testaments, and other sorts of Books, a vast Quantity of Paper, &c. the whole Loss amounting to many Thousand Pounds. The Fire burnt so violent, that nothing could be sav'd either in the Dwelling-house or Printing-house; and Mr. Basket and his Family narrowly escap'd the Flames.

They write Bristol, That at Arlingham, Awre, and several other Places along the River Severn, they have received incredible Loss, their Sea-Walls being broke down, their Lands overflowed, and vast Numbers of their Cattle and Sheep drown'd. Several Trows and Boats were sunk near Awre.

Last Week Farmer Osbourne, of Wickwar in the County of Gloucester, having a Cow that had been ill for some Time, he knock'd her o'th' Head; and when she was open'd, there were found in her Five Calves, all hair'd, and One Four Feet long.

On Thursday about Five in the Afternoon, died at his Lodgings in the Canongate, Edinburgh, in the 77th Year of his Age, after a few Days Illness, the Right Hon. George Earl of Morton, Baron of Aberdour, &c. One of the Sixteen Peers for Scotland, Lord Vice Admiral of Scotland, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Orkney, and Zetland, &c. He has left Issue, James Lord Aberdour, who succeeds him in Estate and Honours, and Capt. Robert Douglass, Representative for the County of Orkney and Zetland.

The last Letters from Paris say, the Health of the K. of France is far from being re-establish'd, his Majesty remaining exceeding thin, and more than ordinarily weak. It is apprehended by some, that his Lungs are out of Order.

A true Copy of some Verses found among the Papers of the late Rev. Mr. Henry Abbotts, of Gloucester, in Answer to a Dunning-Letter, sent to him by Mr. Tart, of Birmingham.

GOOD now, Mr. Tart,
I pray why so smart?
Your Bill I did not refuse;
But when it was brought,
I complain'd of a Fault,
Which was, that I wanted the Screws.

The D--l abut
Did I see Mr. Pitt,
James Carpenter brought me the Bill;
And if Pitt wrote to you
What in Fact was not true,
You must own that he did very ill.

Vulcanian Youth!
This brings you the Truth,
And with it I hope Satisfaction.
You know not the Man,
If you think that I can
Be guilty of pitiful Action.

Perform but your Bargain,
There's an End to all Jargon;
Your Bill shall be paid to content:
If you or your Brother
Either think any other,
You'll think of what never was meant.

Mr. Tart's Reply.

MOST Reverend Debtor!
I received your Letter,
And immediately wrote for to know,
What shou'd be the Reason,
You'd not in due Season
The Screws which I sent long ago.

It's my Pleasure and Will,
All that's Just to fulfil:
You shall have what's your Due to a Mite;
For I wou'd not be thought,
For more than you've bought
To screw a Man out of his Right.

And if my Epistle
Was as rough as a Thistle,
Pray pardon it, Reverend Sir!
For I thought your Delay
In not sending my Pay
Very much stood in need of a Spur.

Then be not offended
At what I intended,
For altho' your Muse is so bright,
Yet Vulcan you'll find,
If he halts, is not blind,
But has Prudence to look for his Right.

Bright Son of Apollo,
Your Maxim I follow,
To ask and give each Man his Due;
For this I declare
Is nothing but fair,
With Mahometan, Christian, or Jew.

Pray pardon my Verse,
If it is not so terse,
As those Numbers your Muse can impart;
I live by my Hammer,
And you by your Grammar,
So adieu, from your Friend, Thomas Tart.

Boston, March 13. The following Account comes from a Person of Credit at Pemaquid, viz. That the Throat Distemper, so called, still continues in the Eastern Parts of this Province, and has proved mortal to many of the younger Sort; but that of late they have used the following Method of Cure, which has been attended with great Success, viz. The inside Rind of Elder Bark, Mustard and Pepper beat well together, and laid to the hind Part or Nape of the Neck, which draws away the Malignity, and the Patient recovers in a short Time. Note, That as this Compound draws most violently, it should only be applied in Cases of Extremity.

We hear, that some Days ago, a Man inadvertently swallow'd Two of his Children; the Manner of it was thus: His Wife had lately miscarry'd of Twins; and the Gossips and the being willing to preserve the Two little Embrios, bought half a Pint of Rum, and put it in a Bottle, into which they thrust these Two small People, but unknown to the Husband: It happened one Evening as he was looking about, he found the Bottle, took out the Cork, and putting it to his Nose, perceiv'd it was Rum by the Smell, and making no Ceremonies, he directly swallow'd it down, well pleas'd as he thought, that he had found out his Wife's Hoard.

Williamsburg.

Williamsburg, May 5, 1738.

Sir,

I HAD the Pleasure of your Letter, with the inclos'd Plan of Mont. Huber, as it was at last agreed to by some eminent Gentlemen, who wish well to their Country. And since you do me the Honour to ask my Opinion of it, I shall obey your Commands in a few Words. The Sum of Five Pounds Sterling, allowed for every Hoghead of Aronoko Tobacco, weighing 9000 lbs. at the Inspectors Scales, is certainly a living Price; especially as it is without Rutque or Deduction, and all the Money paid down. 'Tis true, some fortunate Gentlemen may have had more, since the Law; but I may venture to say, that where One has had more for this Sort of Tobacco, Three have had less: And if we can supply the French with what they want from hence, 'tis likely that the rest of the Tobacco we shall send to England, will yield a better Price than usual, as the Merchants will have less to manage, and the irresistible Charms of Ready Money will be removed. 'Tis evident that the Execution of this Plan will bring a large Sum of Money into the Country, with which the Planter may go to Market, and purchase his Goods much cheaper; and at the same Time the Merchants here will be able to make quicker Returns, and contract fewer desperate and outstanding Debts. The multiplying of Money will naturally raise the Value of Land, and lessen the Price of Labour; the Workmen expecting to be paid in Cash, with which he may buy all his Necessaries cheaper: Besides, if the Scheme succeed, it will induce the Inhabitants of Norfolk, and other Places, to build Ships to carry away the large Quantity of Tobacco that will be purchased, whereby great Sums will be saved to this Country, many Artisans brought in, and many Sailors bred of our own; which will be to many Hands taken off from planting Tobacco, and much more usefully employ'd. In one Word, which way soever I turn this Plan, it appears, to my View, big with Advantages to this Country, and in no Instance prejudicial to the general Interest of Great Britain. These, Sir, are my Sentiments, which are, however, submitted to your better Judgment, by

Your most humble Servant,

PHILOPATRIS.

To Mr. -----

On Monday last, there was a Meeting here, of many eminent Gentlemen, to consult of the Scheme mention'd in the above Letter; who, after hearing Mr. Huber's Proposals, and maturely deliberating thereon, came to a final Determination to agree on the following Terms:

WHEREAS Mr. Edward Barradall, of Williamsburg, in Virginia, and Mr. Philip Thomas, of Anne-Arundel County, in Maryland, are empowered by the Agent of the Farmers General of the United Farms of France, to buy for the said Farmers, Fifteen Thousand Hogheads of Tobacco: And propose to purchase Tobacco of the Growth of Virginia, upon the following Terms, viz.

To pay for every Hoghead of Tobacco, delivered at some Publick Warehouse, upon Potomack, Rappahannock, or James River, weighing 9000 lbs. nett, L 5 0 0 Sterl. And so in Proportion for every Hoghead weighing more than 9000 lbs. nett.

For every Hoghead delivered as aforesaid, weighing 850 lbs. nett, 4 12 0

And for so much as the same shall weigh more than 850 lbs. nett, at the Rate of Eleven Shillings Sterling per Hundred.

For every Hoghead weighing 800 lbs. nett, 4 4 0

And so in Proportion for so much as the same shall weigh more than 800 lbs. nett. But no Hoghead to be accepted under 800 lbs. nett.

And where one Person sells and delivers any Number of Hogheads, the Weight of the same to be taken upon an Average, in Proportion to the Weight of the Whole.

The Purchase Money to be paid upon Delivery of the Inspectors Notes, and according to the Weight mentioned in the said Notes, either in Bills of Exchange, or Cash, with an Allowance of 25 per Cent. for the Difference of Exchange. But no Allowance is to be made to the Seller, for Cask, the Charge of Inspecting, or other Charge whatsoever.

Upon which Terms the said Mr. Barradall, and Mr. Thomas, propose to contract for Two Years, viz. for the Years 1739, and 1740. And expect in a short Time to have a sufficient Power to contract for Four Years more.

NOW We, whose Names are hereunto subscribed, approving and being willing to encourage the said Proposal, Do hereby severally engage to deliver to the said Mr. Barradall, and Mr. Thomas, or either of them, their, or either of their Assigns, upon the Terms aforesaid, so many Hogheads of Tobacco, at such Time and Place, and to accept for the same, either Bills of Exchange or Cash, as shall be particularly mentioned and set down against our respective Names hereunto subscribed.

Mr. Parks,

Please to insert the following Performance of a Youth of my Acquaintance, in your Gazette, and you'll oblige,
Your constant Reader, W. B.

The DISCOVERY, by a Youth, of the Frontiers.

UNUS'd to Love's Imperial Chain,
I felt an inward burning Pain,
Which at Melissa's Sight remov'd,
But still was ignorant that I lov'd,
'Till some in Jest inforc'd her Name,
My glowing Cheeks confest'd my Flame:
In vain, I strove my Love to hide,
In vain, th' apparent Truth deny'd,
My Blushes told my Tongue, it ly'd.
Whether my Breast's involv'd with Cares,
At her Approach a Calm appears,
Or if my Heart with gloomy Grief
Is clouded o'er, she brings Relief;
Her charming Eyes new Joys distil,
And my fond Soul with Raptures fill.

Enter'd in York River.

John Maynard, a tall well-set Fellow, about the same Age, and disfigur'd with the Small-Pox; he had on a light Drab Coat and Breeches, with a white Wigg; he is a Plaisterer by Trade, but can do Glaziers and Bricklayers Work, and has got a Diamond, Trowel, and other Tools with him. There also went away with them, a Servant Man, belonging to the Rev. Mr. Thomas Hughes, of the same County, nam'd William Waters, a Joyner, or Chair-maker by Trade, a well set Fellow, about 20 or 22 Years of Age: He had on a new Suit of Dark-colour'd Drugget, an old Cloth Coat, with a large Cape to it, lin'd with Green Cloth, and broad Metall Buttons, had an old Pair of Leather Breeches; his Hair is very short, and he wears a White Knit Cotton Cap.

N. B. The said Thomas Lee, George Barry, and William Waters, are Convicts, imported in the Ship York, into York River, in March last: And we understand, since they went away, that the said Lee has a Relation in Philadelphia, or New-York, and has been there himself; which gives Reason to believe they are gone up the Bay, and very probably will make over to the Eastern-shore. John Tomlins, and John Maynard, are indentured for Four Years; and were imported in the Brigantine Priscilla, in June last.

ALEXANDER SPOTSWOOD, Esq; Sole Deputy-Post-Master-General of America, having lately form'd a new Regulation for carrying on the several Post-Stages with greater Expedition and Certainty than hitherto, this is to advertize the Publick thereof; and that by this Regulation, the several Stages will be perform'd, as follows, viz. The Post is to set out from the General Post-Office at New-Post, on Wednesday, the 26th Inst. to cross over Patowmack that Night, and arrive at Annapolis on the Friday; there he is to make some Stop, and then proceed to Suitquehanna, where he is to arrive on Saturday Night; and exchange Mails with the Philadelphia Rider, who is there to meet him: The Monday following, he is to return to Annapolis, and arrive at Patowmack on the Tuesday Night, from whence the Mail is to be brought to New-Post, on the Wednesday, and the next Morning to set out for Williamsburg, where he is to arrive on Saturday. Riders are engag'd so conveniently, that no Post-Horse is to cross Patowmack or Suitquehanna, by which Means the Mail will pass much more certain than usual, it having been often retarded before, by bad Weather, when it was impossible for a Horse to pass those wide Ferries, so that the Post will, for the future, regularly arrive at Williamsburg every other Saturday. And in order to extend the Post-Office still further to the Southward, Col. Spotswood has been pleased to grant a Commission to William Parks, the Printer of this Paper, to carry on a Stage from Williamsburg to Edenton, in North-Carolina, which is to be perform'd once a Month, Summer and Winter. The Stage is already begun, and the Post is to set out again from Williamsburg, on Monday the 8th of May, to go over Hog-Island Ferry; from thence to Nantemond Court-house, thence to Norfolk Town; and from thence to Edenton, where he is to stay One Night, and then to return the same Way back again; and so to continue the Stage regularly once a Month.

All Persons who have Letters to send to the Southward of Williamsburg, are desired to deliver them to William Parks at the Printing-Office; and those who have Letters to send from North-Carolina, to the Northward of Edenton, are desired to deliver them to Dr. Abraham Blackhall, at Edenton, who is appointed Post-Master of Carolina.
